Dear All,

Thank you for all your kind words, thoughts and especially your patience during the past few weeks. It has been a challenging, difficult time for all.

St Bede's College welcomes back and thanks the many international students who have chosen to continue their secondary education not only with us, but also in Christchurch.

St Bede's College is now fully operational from 7.45am until 1.00pm each day (1.30pm Thursdays). We are sharing our site with Marian College for the remainder of the year but the two schools will be operating separately. Marian College will commence at 1.00pm until 5.35pm.

The staff at St Bede's College will be working very hard to maintain our genuine pastoral care of international students and ensure high quality teaching and learning for all students. The students' academic learning will not be compromised in any way. We will be opening a Homework/tutorial centre from 1.15pm – 2.30pm Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Teachers will provide on-going teaching during this time. International students should make the most of these additional learning opportunities. By working together, we can make 2011 a very successful, rewarding year, achieving our goals and aspirations. The school remains committed to providing all its students a full academic programme.

If you have any concerns or questions, please do not hesitate to contact me Ph 3750647 ext 829.
